The solution

The proposed solution was the Allday Time Manager system, complemented by the use of the PalmReader Biometric terminal (using Fujitsu's award winning PalmSecure vein recognition technology). The PalmReader terminals take full advantage of Fujitsu PalmSecure technology to provide maximum Biometric identification security.

The Allday Time Manager system uses an SQL database, enabling different sites and users to be able to access the information they require simultaneously if needed, as well as enabling a central location to run reports and export data for all sites as required for HR and Payroll purposes. The system also provides live roll-call reporting enabling managers to easily check on staff attendance as well as useful HR and Personnel information and reports.
